MARYVILLE ITEMS.

MARYVILLE, TENN., Oct. 18, 1875. To the Editors of the Chronicle:

Maryville has long since taken the name of the "Town of Churches," and she is certainly entitled to it. There was, necording to the census taken by a tract distributor, something over a year ago, near eighteen hun-dred inhabitants, white and colored. Senator Morton's onsistency. From the Circleville (Ohio) Herald and Union.

SENATOR MORTON.

Many Republican editors, and the slap-dash Democratic press universal-ly, arraign Governor Morton for in-consistency, for his recent course on the currency question. These men ignorantly, thoughtlessly or designedly misrepresent the great statesman of Indiana, and the men who think with him. At no time during the pendency of the currency bill which was vetoed neld, and revivals have been the result. Congregations have increased. On the Bishop's funds they have a surplus of $14. Had quite a number of revivals, and a good many conversions. A. J. Frazier, P. E. of the Asheville district, reports that one of the best workers died early in the year. On another circuit the preacher appointed would not accept the work. Those two things worked against the district. The district is in a better spiritual condition than it was last year.

Memphis Ledger. We see nothing to laugh about, and no good reason why sensible men should set up all night and shout themselves hoarse over a little local election. None of our Democratic friends took cold last night. They are a sober, temperate people, and that is the reason General Cary was on the ticket. He is off now, and Rise-up William Allen will have to sit down. Some day we may explain how this came about, but not now. For the present we can only reflect en "what might have been." Perhaps our friends up in Ohio did not maeage this affair well; they may have gone up too soon or too far. And this reminds us of a little anecdote which is good for the blues. It was during the war that a Duil, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and aerid, at others thick tenanions, making the war that a corps of ragged Confederates had to cross a swoilen stream about waist deep. HOW CAN THIS BE ACCOMPLISHED?

How can this be accomplished:
is a question many will doubtless ask themselves,
and torsesing this we effer the following lund explanation:

The Trade assignee, anxious to dispose of and realize on the entire stock of the bankrupts in one sale, accepted our offer of $500,000 cash for the lot; after advertising same for sale one mouth, and not receiving a single offer, which, in the present degression of business and almost total atagnation or trade, is not to be wonde et at:
notwithstanding that our offer was one-third less than the setual cost of the manufacture of the Pocket Books. The assignee having to at once realize the affects of the bankrusts, in the interents of the creditors, he had no alternative but to accept this offer and sell us the lot at our own
